

ELLEN M. MANNION

ASSOCIATE

Chicago, IL

312.516.5669

emannion@atllp.com

Ellen Mannion is an associate in Armstrong Teasdale’s Litigation practice group. She is experienced in a variety of complex commercial litigation matters, including those involving higher education, white-collar and government enforcement. She regularly conducts research and drafts memoranda aimed at developing litigation strategy, assessing the viability of claims asserted, and identifying and determining the strength of potential defenses.

She is also skilled at drafting pleadings and motions including answers to complaints, counterclaims, motions to dismiss, motions to compel, motions for protective orders, motions to quash, and motions for admission pro hac vice.

Licensed as shown under Admissions. Not currently licensed in Illinois.*

BACKGROUND

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, Ellen was a litigation associate at a Boston law firm.

EDUCATION

- Washington University School of Law (J.D., 2023)
 - Washington University Journal of Law & Policy (Primary Editor)
- Loyola University Chicago (B.B.A., summa cum laude, 2020)
 - Marketing
 - Damen Scholarship
 - Alpha Sigma Nu Jesuit Honor Society
 - Dean’s List
 - John Felice Rome Center (Fall 2018)
 - Business Statistics, Teaching Assistant

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP

2023

Undue Burdens: How the Texas Abortion Ban (SB 8) Disproportionately Affects Low-Income Women

Washington University Journal of Law & Policy, Vol. 72

SERVICES AND INDUSTRIES

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Class Action Litigation

Complex Commercial Litigation

E-Discovery

Ethics and Professional Responsibility

Litigation

Trusts, Estates and Private Wealth Management

White-Collar Criminal Defense and Government

Investigations

Financial Services and Banking

Education

ADMISSIONS

Massachusetts

