

FOX 2 NEWS IN THE MORNING TALKS FAIR ST. LOUIS PREPARATIONS WITH STEVE POZARIC

Steve Pozaric, Corporate Services partner and Fair St. Louis venue management committee chairman, was a guest on Fox 2 News in the Morning today, July 1, previewing the three-day-long birthday party for America.

See the video interview here.

Armstrong Teasdale is proud to be a sponsor of the event that is bringing Bonnie Raitt, The Band Perry, The Fray and Musiq Soulchild to the grounds that once hosted the 1904 World's Fair. Rounding out the headlining entertainment lineup will be Gavin DeGraw, Matt Nathanson, Mary Lambert, Capital Cities and The Neighbourhood.

See a full Fourth of July weekend schedule here.

This past Spring, Pozaric received the 2014 Mel Loewenstein Distinguished Volunteer Award from the Fair St. Louis Foundation. He was honored with the award at a ceremony at the St. Louis Zoo in April.

Pozaric, who has been involved with the Foundation since 2010, has served as general counsel to Fair St. Louis for the last two years and is the current chairman of the venue management committee. In addition, he has chaired various committees including those dealing with administrative services and physical arrangements.

PEOPLE

Steven E. Pozaric