PARTNER RICK MCCONNELL JOINS ARMSTRONG TEASDALE IN KANSAS CITY

Armstrong Teasdale, a law firm with offices across the United States, proudly announces the addition of Partner Rick McConnell to its Public Finance practice in Kansas City.

McConnell primarily serves as bond, disclosure, tax and special counsel to cities, counties, conduit issuers and special purpose districts. He has significant experience in all tax-exempt and taxable forms of public finance offerings, including general obligation bonds, revenue bonds, various forms of lease/purchase financing, tax increment financing and tax abatement. McConnell has also served as special counsel to cities in various matters, most commonly related to economic incentives.

In addition, he has represented lenders in various types of public finance transactions across the country.

McConnell earned his J.D., with distinction, from the University of Missouri – Kansas City and B.A., summa cum laude, from Missouri Southern State College. McConnell is admitted to practice law in Missouri and Kansas.

Prior to joining Armstrong Teasdale, McConnell was a shareholder at another area law firm.
