

RICHARD ENGEL NAMED TO MISSOURI LAWYERS WEEKLY 'POWER LIST' IN BANKRUPTCY LAW

Financial and Real Estate Services Partner Richard Engel has been named to Missouri Lawyers Weekly's Power List for Bankruptcy Law. The list features the top 30 lawyers considered the most powerful bankruptcy lawyers in Missouri. The publication's editorial team developed the ranking through interviews with attorneys around the state, review of published court cases and archival research.

Engel represents the interests of corporate lenders and borrowers, trade creditors, boards, and committees in all aspects of debtor/creditor relations. Representations include negotiating and documenting capital and debt structures, loan workouts and asset acquisitions and divestitures. In addition, he has represented both corporate debtors and creditors in all aspects of bankruptcy proceedings, including lead counsel representation of debtors in possession, lenders and creditors' committees. Engel has represented debtors, significant creditors, committees and indenture trustees in some of the largest bankruptcy proceedings and corporate restructurings in the country.

Active in firm management, Engel serves as general counsel to Armstrong Teasdale and previously served as leader of the Financial and Real Estate Services practice group as well as the Restructuring, Insolvency and Bankruptcy practice.

The Power List appears in the Nov. 29 issue of Missouri Lawyers Weekly.

PEOPLE

Richard W. Engel, Jr.